CIVIL ACTION NO. 04-343

NOTICE OF DEPOSITION OF BELL INDUSTRIES CALIFORNIA, INC.
PURSUANT TO RULE 30(b)(6)

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

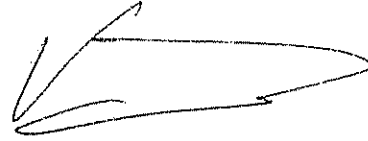

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to Rules 26 and Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("FRCP"), Defendants Tatung Company and Tatung Company of America will take the deposition of Bell Industries California, Inc. ("Bell") beginning on March 19, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. at the offices of Greenberg Traurig, LLP located at 2450 Colorado Avenue, Suite 400E, Santa Monica, CA 90404 or at such other time and/or place as counsel for all parties may agree in writing. The deposition will be conducted upon oral examination before a certified court reporter authorized by law to administer oaths. The deposition will continue from day to day until completed. The deposition will be recorded by videotape and stenographically, and may use technology that permits the real time display of the deposition transcript. Parties wishing to see the real time display must supply their own computer.

Pursuant to FRCP 30(b)(6), Bell shall designate one or more officers, directors, agents or other representatives who consent to testify on its behalf, to testify as to matters known or reasonably available to Bell regarding the topics listed in the attached list of topics. To the extent more than one deponent is identified, Bell shall state in advance of the deposition which portions of this notice each deponent is prepared to address.

All parties are invited to attend and cross-examine.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party; or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(D) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

Instructions

1. If you object to any part of a request and refuse to answer that part, state your objection and answer the remaining portion of that request. If you object to the scope or time period of a request and refuse to answer for that scope or time period, state your objection and answer the request for the scope or time period you believe is appropriate (including in your answer a specific statement as to why you believe the scope or time period is inappropriate).
2. If any of the following requests cannot be answered in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information, please so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information you have concerning the unanswered portions. If your answer is qualified in any particular, set forth the details of such qualification.
3. You must produce all documents responsive to these requests which are in your actual or constructive possession, custody or control, including all documents within the actual or constructive possession, custody or control of any representative, agent, employee, attorney, accountant, investigator or any person acting for you or on your behalf.

4. All documents are to be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business, in the files in which such documents have been maintained, and in the order within each file in which such documents have been maintained; or all documents shall be organized and labeled to correspond with the requests below. All documents are to be produced along with copies of the file folders in which they are kept.

5. If, in responding to the requests, you claim that there is any ambiguity in either a particular request or in a definition or an instruction applicable thereto, such claim shall not be used by you as a basis for refusing to respond, but you shall set forth as part of the response the language deemed to be ambiguous and the interpretation chosen or used in responding to the particular request.

6. For purposes of interpreting or construing the following requests, the terms used are to be given their most expansive and inclusive interpretation unless otherwise specifically limited in the document request itself. This includes, without limitation, the following:

- a. Construing the words "and" and "or" used in any document request in the disjunctive or conjunctive as necessary, to make the document request more inclusive;

- b. Construing the words "any" and "all" used in any document request to mean "any and all" as necessary to make the document request more inclusive;
- c. Construing the singular form of any word to include the plural and the plural form to include the singular; and
- d. Construing the masculine form to include the feminine and/or the gender neutral form.

7. Electronic records and computerized information are to be produced in an intelligible format together with a description of the system from which it is derived sufficient to permit rendering the material intelligible.

Definitions

- 1. The term "relating to" means referring to, regarding, evidencing, describing, supporting, refuting, and/or constituting.
- 2. The term "document" or "documents" means and includes any kind of written, typewritten or printed materials; any tangible recording of any form of statement, communication or representation; and all other data compilation from which information can be obtained (translated, if necessary, by you through detection devices into reasonably usable form) including, but not limited to, writings and all non-identical copies and drafts thereof, notes, memoranda, letters, calendars, appointment books, diaries, notes or minutes of meetings or conversations, catalogs, written agreements, microfilm, graphs, charts, drawings, plans, computer discs, computer tapes, computer cards, computer printouts, tape and sound records, photo records, inter-office communications, reports, photographs, cables, telegrams, telexes, account books, ledger sheets, canceled checks, invoices, bills, receipts, financial statements or any other form of "writing" as defined in Federal Rule of Evidence 1001.

3. The term "TFT-LCD module" means thin film transistor liquid crystal display module.

4. The term "mounting hole" means a hole, such as a screw hole, used for mounting or attaching the TFT-LCD module to equipment or to another component, such as a housing.

5. The term "communications" means every manner of disclosure, transfer or exchange of information, whether person to person, in a group, orally, in writing, by telephone, by electronic transmission, or otherwise, including letter or other correspondence, electronic mail, telephone message, memorandum, or telegram.

6. The term "Sharp" means Sharp Corporation, Sharp Microelectronics of the Americas, Sharp Electronics Corporation, their parents, subsidiaries, affiliated companies, officers, directors, employees, agents, consultants, and all those acting on their behalf.

7. The term "Sharp products" mean the following: LQ5AW116, LQ4RA35, LQ4RA31, LQ5AW136, LQ6RA52, LQ6RA01/02, LQ6MC01/02, LQ4RB17, LQ4RB15, LQ4NC31/32, and LQ4RA01/02.

8. The terms "you" or "Bell Industries" mean Bell Industries, its parents, subsidiaries, affiliated companies, officers, directors, employees, agents, consultants, and all those acting on its behalf.

Documents to be Produced

1. Documents sufficient to show your purchase of the Sharp products prior to April 2, 1998, including purchase agreements, purchase orders, invoices, receipts, and payment and shipping records.

2. Documents sufficient to identify your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products as a component.

3. Assembly drawings, technical specifications, diagrams, and/or manuals for your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products.

4. Documents sufficient to show the mechanical structure and components of your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products.

5. Documents sufficient to show the manner in which the Sharp products were used, including the manner in which the mounting holes in the Sharp products were used, the manner in which the Sharp products were mounted, affixed or attached your products, and the component(s) to which the Sharp products were mounted, affixed or attached.

6. Documents sufficient to show the sale or offer for sale in the United States of your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products that occurred prior to April 2, 1998.

Deposition Topics

1. The mechanical structure of each of your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products.

2. The components that make up each of your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products, including the functions of each component.

3. The sale or offer for sale in the United States prior to April 2, 1998 of your products that incorporated any of the Sharp products.

4. Your purchase of the Sharp products prior to April 2, 1998.

5. The manners in which the Sharp products were used, including the manner in which the mounting holes in the Sharp products were used, the manner in which the Sharp products were mounted, affixed or attached in your products, and the component(s) to which the Sharp products were mounted, affixed or attached.

6. The documents produced by you in this case.
